TONIGHT'S MEET

The 18th-ranked Bombers (0-1) host 14th-ranked Oswego (1-0) in their second dual match in three days. Ithaca is led by 10th-year head coach Marty Nichols, while Oswego is coached by Mike Howard in his 17th year at the helm.

ABOUT ITHACA

The Bombers' winningest wrestler this season is senior Robert Stubbs at 184, who stands at 9-0 on the season with championships at the Ithaca and UNC-Pembroke Invitationals. He is also Ithaca's winningest active wrestler with a career record of 82-36. Leading the team in falls is sixth-ranked Nick Calandrino at 197 with four on the season. Also ranked for the Bombers is Matthias Keib, ranked third with a 9-1 record.

LAST TIME OUT

The Bombers lost their first home dual match in over five years Monday, falling to Lycoming 20-15. Stubbs remained undefeated, winning his bout 11-5 at 184. Four other Bombers were victorious: Scott D'Annunzio won 6-2 at 141, Jad Duca won 4-1 at 157, Brian Lockard won his first bout of the year (6-5 at 165) and Keib won 5-2 at 174.

ABOUT OSWEGO

The Lakers, ranked 14th nationally, boast a national ranking at 133 in fifth-ranked Joe Jewett, who is Oswego's only undefeated wrestler at 9-0 and also won the 133 bracket at the Ithaca Invitational. Also coming away from Ithaca a champion was Dane LaPlante at 149. Laplante won his bracket at the Springfield invitational and is 16-1 on the year. The Lakers' last competition was at the RIT Invitational, where their top finish was runner-up John Spinner in the 125 bracket.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Ithaca leads the all-time series 25-17 with three ties. In last year's meeting, the Bombers won 27-7. Three Bombers, including Scott Aronowitz and Keib, posted major decisions.

NEXT UP

The Bombers are idle until January 6, when they travel to Williams for dual matches with Simpson and Muhlenberg at 5 and 7 p.m., respectively. The following day Ithaca will compete at the Williams Invitational, slated to begin at 10 a.m.
